

Sophie Faught

Clinics in sound production, jazz improvisation, and musical motivation

“Sophie is an amazing talent that your students will enjoy and learn from
... HIGHLY RECOMMEND!”

- Cory Wynn
band director, Beech Grove High School

Have a professional musician share key information about music and the music business with your students, creating musical motivation in the process! It's a unique opportunity for students to hear, see, and experience high caliber music-making live – and then ask all the questions such a performance inspires.

Sophie's interactive clinics can invigorate interest in music-making, create better practice habits, improve performance in contests, and inspire the next generation of musicians!

About Sophie

Tenor saxophonist Sophie Faught is an improviser, composer, bandleader, and teacher. She has performed in venues across the country and world, including Jazz at Lincoln Center in New York City and the North Sea Jazz Festival in Rotterdam, the Netherlands. She has headlined at the nationally recognized Portland Jazz Festival, leading her own group in original compositions and jazz standards. She has toured as a member of the Nicholas Payton Jazz Quintet, and has also appeared with Jimmy Heath, Slide Hampton, the Temptations, the Four Tops, Terrell Stafford, and Dick Oatts.

She has been active in jazz education for at least the past 10 years, teaching private lessons, coaching ensembles, and creating clinics for music students of all ages.

CUSTOMIZE YOUR CLINIC!

What does your band most need to hear? The topics list below represents a few possibilities, and there are many more! Sophie is eager to make the clinic specifically tailored to your band.

- posture and breathing
- mindful practice habits
- bandleading and musicianship skills
- jazz styles
- the improvisational language
- good sound production

...and many more!

for booking inquiries, call (317) 554-7377 or email sophie.faught@gmail.com

more information at <http://sophiefaught.com>